

So if you are hitting your tee shot on #15 and you are close to the right side of the fairway, you better hit a provisional ball, otherwise you will have to go back up the hill and re-hit your tee shot. A ball that can't be found on the right side of that fairway should be considered Out of Bounds.

If you hit a provisional ball, you cannot use the "Lost Ball" rule on your original shot. You only hit a provisional ball if you think your ball is Out of Bounds

Also, the league allows opponents to concede a "gimme" putt.....however, you are not required to give an opponent a putt.

Unless your opponent tells you your putt is good, you need to hole it out.

Some teams are not going to give you a putt.....
